Mrs. Karl Thomas Freshwater

Lewis, Freshwater wed

Rocks Baptist Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Mary Anne Lewis and Karl Thomas Freshwater, which was an event of August 1, 1981.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Lewis of Appomattox and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glenn Freshwater of Colliers, West Virginia. The double ring vows were read at 7:00 p.m. in the evening by Rev. A. M. Taylor, former pastor of Rock's Baptist Church.

Mrs. Winfred Elder, organist and pianist presented a program of selected nuptial music prior to the ceremony and also accompanied Mrs. Charlene R. Lawson, soloist, who sang "The Wedding Song" and "Theme from Ice Castles (Through the Eyes of Love)."

Escorted by her father, and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown fashioned of white organza and Venice lace. The empire bodice is finished with a Queen Anne neckline and bishop sleeves. The bodice and sleeves are appliqued with motifs of lace. Also appliques of lace are scattered over the front of the floor length skirt, which ends in a chapel train. A band of lace encircles the waistline and finishes the hemline of the skirt and train. Her veil was of fingertip length mantilla of silk illusion, edged and appliqued with lace. She carried a cascading bridal bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids, miniature carnations and baby's breath.

Miss Kathy Mitchell, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of romance blue qiana. The bodice is attached to a yoke of blue point d'spirit, which is appliqued with motifs of Venice lace. The cap sleeves are appliqued with motifs, matching that of the bride. She carried a bouquet of blue daisies and pink sweetheart roses with baby's breath.

Other attendants were Mrs. Nancy P. Long of Appomattox and Ms. Sue Harris of Pamplin, both friends of the bride. Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor with matching bouquets.

Miss Renee Harris, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and wore a blue floor length gown fashioned of sheer organza with pastel flowers accenting the organza, with sheer puffed sleeves. The empire waistline and fitted bodice were accented by a silk pink bow tied in the back. Her bouquet was of blue and pink daisies.

Miss Keli Freshwater, niece of the bridegroom was flower girl. Her dress was white nylon organza with puffed sleeves edge in lace and a fitted bodice accented by a white bow at the back. The full length skirt was caught up at the bottom by tiny satin bows. She carried long stem blue daisies and greenery tied with a baby blue ribbon. She also wore a hair piece of blue daisies and ribbons.

Mr. Eric Probert, friend of the bridegroom was best man for Karl.

Ushers were Timothy Freshwater, brother of the bridegroom, and Allan Harris, cousin of the bride.

Master Billy Carter, friend of the bride was Junior Usher. Ring bearer was Master Jason Freshwater, nephew of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother chose to wear a floor length gown of pink chiffon with long sheer organza sleeves accented with tucks at the shoulder and gathered and tied at the waistline.

The bridegroom's mother wore a floor length gown of turquoise.

The mother of the bride wore a white phalaenopsis orchid shoulder corsage, matching the flowers of the bride.

The mother of the groom wore a white rose corsage, matching the flower of the bridegroom.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. B. B. Harris, Sr., of Appomattox wore a lavender floor length gown with a white shoulder carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis were the hosts for the reception held in the church fellowship hall.

After a southern wedding trip the couple will reside in Appomattox.
